The Summer of Success Program (SOS) is a selective admissions program which assists qualified applicants to be successful students at St. Petersburg College (SPC). Those who are selected are entitled to the program's services free of charge; these include such services as tutoring, career exploration activities, counseling, study skills development and cultural enrichment. All Pinellas County high school seniors who have passed the FSA are encouraged to apply; however, application to the SOS Program does not guarantee acceptance into the program.
