NASA Kennedy Space Center Trip
St. Petersburg College (SPC)
Applied Ethics Department
Friday, February 8, 2019

PURPOSE:
SPC’s Applied Ethics Department students, faculty and staff will participate in
• Kennedy Space Center’s trainings in science, mathematics, geography and technology
• Visit and explore resources available via the Educator’s Resource Center, NASA’s Online Resources, among others
• A tour of the Atlantis, Space Shuttle Simulator and other sites

Only United States citizens can attend these workshops.
The NASA Trip will depart from behind the ES Building on SPC’s Clearwater campus at 6:00am. You are advised to be at the departure location by 5:30am. The bus will leave promptly at 6:00 a.m. All participants are expected to ride on the SPC bus. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

NASA’s DRESS CODE ON EDUCATIONAL TOURS:
• Shoes must be flat, closed, and low-heeled (cover entire foot)
• Must wear socks, full length pants or jeans, no tank tops, etc.
• No sharp objects, backpacks, or coolers permitted
• No hanging earrings or large necklaces

Participants not meeting the “dress code” requirements above will be excluded from the educational tours. This trip is planned ONLY for SPC students currently taking ethics, faculty and staff. Your family members cannot attend. Students who would like to participate in this NASA Trip need to register in advance.

Please DO NOT register for this trip unless you are positive that you will be attending. There are limited seats available.

This trip is FREE for all lower division Students.

To register, click on the URL https://web.spcollege.edu/survey/27863 and complete the survey that opens on Tuesday, January 22, 2019, 8:00am. Also, complete the attached Release of Liability Form and email to Dr. Odutola, odutola.adeniji@spcollege.edu If you are younger than 18 years old, please get your parents or legal guardian to complete the form.

Thank you.